THE MESSENGER

OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

VOL. XLIII No. 2 | FEBRUARY, 1965 | PRICE 10c

The recently released executive board of the Berkeley 1st Ward Relief Society was a unique one.

The husband of each of the Relief Society officers has been, or now is, the bishop of the same ward—Berkeley 1st.

'Eternal Family' Theme Of Recent Stake Conference

THE FAMILY—"the only unit mentioned in relation to Eternal Life," according to Sister Helen B. Evans of the Primary General Board, was stressed throughout the Walnut Creek Stake quarterly conference January 23 and 24, with special emphasis laid on the Home Teaching, Welfare, and Primary programs.

"The most precious thing of all is a child," Sister Evans declared. She continued that Family Night has been observed at least since 1915, but that now it is recognized Church-wide, with a regular guide for its observance.

"Put first things first," she pleaded. "Living together eternally as a family IS first. Being 'married in the Temple' is not enough. We can't make exceptions to our instructions. We must live ALL the commandments. It is really in the home that we learn. The Church auxiliaries are only aids to the home."

President Henry Smith, editor of the Church News section of the Deseret News, former mission president and for 10 years a member of a stake presidency, also emphasized the conference theme and brought out the importance of the Law of the Fast.

"Too much emphasis is placed on offering rather than fasting," he said and cited as benefits of fasting—health, Divine guidance, self-control (spirits become masters of our bodies), family unity, overcoming of sins and imperfections, spirituality, and helping others. Requirements of the fast, he said, are abstention from all food and drink for two consecutive meals, attendance at testimony meeting to hear and bear testimonies, proper evaluation of the meals foregone, giving the consecrated amount to the bishop.

Stake President Kenneth D. Jensen reminded the audience, "All our prophets have realized the importance of teaching in the homes. Too often we are not teaching the right things. The responsibility rests with the Priesthood. We have an excellent study manual, a copy of which should be in every home by this time. Use it. There are many excellent articles in the auxiliaries publications also. The pattern has been set for us to follow. It is inspired."

High Councilman Verland L. Christiansen declared the Church Welfare program "is not a give-away program" and quoted "The man who will not provide for his own house is worse than an infidel." As proper preparation he urged his hearers to prepare themselves and their children to make a living, to learn and teach the children how to work, and

Oakland 4th Ward

Maxwell Park Alumni Reunion

By Marjorie Hawkins

Calling all present and past 4th (Maxwell Park) Ward members. Can you believe it's time to celebrate our 25th Anniversary? It is! A spaghetti dinner and program will be held February 5, in the Cultural Hall of the Oakland 4th Ward, 4705 Virginia Ave. Come and renew old friendships with members and friends.

Congratulations to the families who recently completed Project Temple and went as a group, with many other ward members to the Oakland Temple January 16 for endowments and sealings: The Bill Dent, Fred Rivera, Rich Scott, Ralph Pratt, and Billy Glasser families. Also Henry Body, Gordon Freshour and Juan Martinez.

The W. James Richardson family recently returned from a building mission to Argentina. Their daughter Karen has been in the ward since September attending junior high school here. Their two daughters Sylvia and Rosina returned from the BYU at Christmas. They have a son Robert who is anticipating a full time mission soon.

It was nice to have our BYU students home for the holidays. we are sending back a few more for spring semester. They are Kathy Collins, Gary Wood. and Bonnie Hawkins.

The youngest additions to our growing ward are Sister Hatori and Brother Ridgewell, our January babies.

Sister Eva Wilkins died suddenly January 11.

Marc Lauper broke his leg playing basketball shortly after returning to the "Y" after Christmas vacation. He is back at Helaman Hall but will be attending classes on crutches for the next few month.s

Our newest Missionary to return is Lawrence De Berry. Lawry returned home January 19 after completing a successful mission to the East Central States. Russell McDonald left for his mission to Brazil. He was to enter the Mission Home January 18 but as the Salt Lake Airport was "socked in" for two days, Russ had to resort to "wheels" and went by bus.

The Savior Would Like This

By Marilla Bodily

Berkeley 2d Ward Relief Society led the membership of the ward in a Christmas project. President Jane Ricks asked the director of the Bureau of Social Planning of Alameda County about worthy families not on welfare relief, but who needed some assistance. In connection with the Oakland Christmas Bureau and the Cancer Association she received the given names, ages and sizes of three families, none members of the Church. Each of the quorums took charge of providing food, clothing and gifts for one of the families. Members donated most of the items or provided some cash for necessities. The Relief Society handled the wrapping and delivery of the items.

This was the first year that families were permitted to respond to donors, although this was done through the agencies involved. We heard from all three families and the following letter expressed the feelings of all:

"Dear Friends:

I wish there was something more I could say besides "Thank You". When I spoke with Mrs. —— on the phone she said there were three or four boxes—you can well imagine my shocked surprise at receiving 12 boxes.

Who ever planned our Christmas seemed to really know our family and our likes and dislikes. We could use all the clothing and didn't exchange a thing.

For many years I have wanted a clock-radio, so when Santa Claus brought me 14 blue chip books I got me my long wanted radio.

I had heard of the Christmas Bureau before but I had no idea you planned anything like that for one family.

I wish you could have seen the children's faces when we returned from Midnight Mass to find a roomful of gifts when they had been told they were receiving nothing.

If it was possible I'd like to thank each and every one of you but I have no idea who to thank. I wish I could tell you of the happiness and joy you brought to me after the sudden sadness the death of my darling little girl brought me.

All I can say is Thank You and May God Bless You All—the ones who provided our Christmas and the ones who plan for others.

My deepest gratitude,"

Ours was a more worthwhile Christmas for doing without something and sharing with others.

BYU 1965 'Great Decisions' Kit

As 44 Brigham Young University Education Week programs are held throughout the western states this year, 10,000 Great Decisions kits are being distributed through cooperation of the political science department of the University, according to R. Wayne Shute, coordinator. office of community education. Hilton Power, western regional director of the Foreign Policy Association, Berkeley, announced that copies of the kits are available on request from his office at 1711 Grove Street, Berkeley; or from the University's Los Angeles office.

Brockbank Leads Oakland-Berkeley Stake Conference

Elder Bernard P. Brockbank, Assistant to the Council of Twelve, will preside at a quarterly conference of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake, Saturday and Sunday, February 6 and 7, in Oakland.

Also attending will be William G. Bangerter, a member of the Priesthood Home Teaching Committee and Marianne C. Sharp of the Relief Society General Board.

General sessions of the conference will be held Sunday at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. at East Bay Interstake Center, 4780 Lincoln Avenue. Oakland, conducted by Stake President O. Leslie Stone, 44 Bellevue Avenue, Piedmont 11. Visitors are welcome.

Elder Brockbank has served as president of three missions of the Church in the British Isles. He is a Utah building contractor and realtor and a former school board president. He is managing director of the "Mormon" Pavilion at the New York World's Fair.

Elder Bangerter is a former president of the Brazillian Mission. He has been active in Church leadership as president of the Granger and North Jordan Stakes.

Mrs. Sharp has been a teacher and president in ward Relief Society work. She is a former teacher, earning her B.A. degree in ancient languages. She is a daughter of the late President J. Reuben Clark, Jr., first counselor in the First Presidency of the Church.

The George Olsons are proud grandparents of Lisa Heckman, first daughter of Karen and Dick Heckman.

The Raymond Hawkins family had an eventful December. Ray and Etta Lou's daughter Lou Jean was married to Peter Jepsen of El Cerrito Dec. 16 at The Little Chapel of the Flowers by President Elmo Smith. Following was a reception at the Brazilian Room in Tilden Park. The young people are now living in El Cerrito. Her grandmother. Mrs. LeRoy E. Cowles had come out from Salt Lake City for the wedding. As they started for the train on the rainy Saturday, Dec. 26, she was in a serious automobile accident in which she suffered severe facial injuries and a broken leg. She is recovering and hopes to regain her health and activity. Also severly injured in the accident was John Diskin. He, too, is off the critical list and recovering.

Another casualty to our winter visitor, Ada Lindblad, wife of Victor Lindblad, was a broken arm suffered Jan. 3.

More than 1,500 saints attended Temple sessions during the first week the Oakland Temple was open for ordinance work. In one session there were 40 couples sealed to each other, in many cases children were also part of the ceremonies.

Many baptisms for the dead were also performed during the first week.

San Leandro 2d Ward

Former Bishop Honored By Ward

By Ruby Ostler

Myron Christensen, former bishop of San Leandro 2d Ward, was guest of honor at a ward party recently. Entertainment was "This is Your Life" program, written and narrated by Sister Hansen. All of his family in California was present. Many amusing incidents in his life were related by them and personal friends with whom he has been associated both in Church and in the business world.

Bishop Christensen was responsible for organizing the "Burlap Project" which has been the main source of funds for the building of our beautiful new chapel. When two stero albums of the Book of Mormon were presented to him as a gife from ward members, they were wrapped in yards and yards of burlap. As he unwrapped and accepted the gift he remarked. "From now on I will probably be known as the Burlap Bishop!"

Temple Work Is Now 'Under Way'

By Nell Smith

Ordinance work in the Oakland Temple is going well, according to President Delbert F. Wright. Most members coming to the Temple are patient with the new workers, new equipment, and new procedures, and this tolerance is appreciated, he added.

The second week went smoother than the first and it is hoped that in a few more weeks there will be a quietly efficient operation as more workers are acquired and become familiar with the work.

"The workers are wonderful. Long hours have been accepted smilingly and many volunteer for double duty where the need is obvious. The staff also, has demonstrated the same devotion and desire to accomplish the purpose of the Temple," said President Wright.

Some problems arise in the scheduling of Temple sessions. Until additional workers can be trained, the schedule printed in the "Mesenger", and recently in the Church News will remain the same.

Hours shown are starting times in the assembly room. Patrons should be at the Temple at least an hour ahead of the indicated times to get the preliminary work done and be ready. The second session each morning is for endowment for the living, mariages, and sealings.

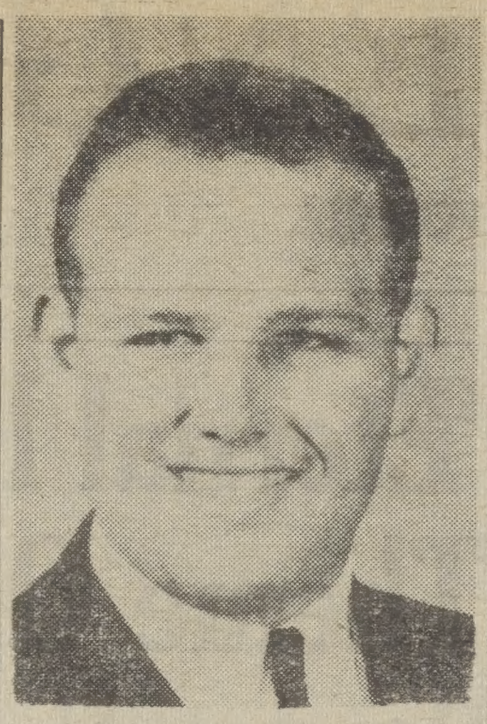
The most serious problem arises from the desire of many people to come to the Temple on Saturdays. Every effort will be made to accommodate Saturday crowds as efficiently as possible, but there will be delays and disappointments if large groups plan to come on Saturdays. Those considering attending Temple sessions in groups are advised to attend on days other than Saturday.

Another difficulty arises from groups coming for sealings after civil marriages, (many of which involve sealing of children to parents) without first making appointment to do so. and sending in the family group sheets essential for this work. According to President Wright this requires time, the interviews are long and delay the company. He urges everyone to make appointments for such ordinances well in advance, find out what will be needed, then send the information in well ahead of the day for which the work is scheduled.



TEMPLE HILL ORGAN CONCERTS present the talented young artist, Robert Walker at 4 p.m. March 7.

Mr. Walker has performed solo recitals throughout the San Francisco Bay area. He is actively engaged in the Berkeley Junior Bach festival, is a member of the San Francisco Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, and is president of the newly formed San Francisco Student Guild Group.

He is organist at the Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, San Francisco.

Newark Ward

Stam Family Aids Building Fund

By Barbara Hoskin

A special evening is being planned by the Stam family for the benefit of the Newark Ward building fund. The evening February 19, will be titled "Dutch Treat with Entertainment and All You Can Eat."

The Stams, one of the best-known Church families in the area. will arrange the evening from the original Dutch food and entertainment to the decor of wooden shoes, a live duck, and replica of a windmill.

The food will include delicious and original Dutch dishes highlighted by an extra treat of "ollie bollaen" a special Dutch doughnut. During dinner authentic Dutch street organ music will be played from tapes owned by Carl and Jennie Garrelli. Then after dinner the live entertainment will begin when Lola (Stam) Payne and Tina Stam will do wooden shoe dances of yesterday and the present-day dances the young Dutch people are doing. They will be followed by the professional Gil-Stam Trio with songs from Holland with their own special treatment. Emma Stam, the "mama" of the family, will render a song or two.

Suggested donation for the evening will be $5.00 a person. For reservations call Emma Stam at 797-7441.

We are dancing regularly to the Russ Williams Dance Band on the 2d and 4th Saturdays at Oakland 4th Ward, 4705 Virginia Ave., Oakland. Professional dance instruction will be part of the regular program.

Buffet Dinner Well Attended

By Lucy Jacobs

The buffet dinner at Pleasant Hill Ward was well attended.

Coming in February is the tour of Hearst Castle at San Simeon. Sterling Yeamon, 2470 Washington Avenue, San Leandro is in charge. The Sacrament Club is joining us.

The March activity will be our annual Homecoming dinner dance when the Alumni of the Club will be our special guests.

Genealogical Research Library

Our collection will be enhanced with the proceeds of a sizeable memorial fund in the name of Sister Winnifred Phelps, wife of Brother Rufus Phelps, who was a frequent visitor to the library. Genealogical research was one of her chief interests.

A recent (non-member) visitor to our Temple open house received an impression while going through the rooms that she should donate her six volumes on the Bosworth family history and genealogy. She delivered the books to the Bureau of Information and our library is now the proud owner.

The required list of basic books, which the Salt Lake Genealogical library requires its branches to own, has been received and the few items we did not own are now on order.

In the New Year, 1965, Sister Russell will be available in the library each Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Anyone needing help on British problems can get it on that day only. First come, first served.

We wish you all a library-conscious New Year with an increase in the size of your records.

Schedule of hours for the "Genalogical Research Library" on Temple Hill.

*Tuesdays, 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.; Wednesdays, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturdays, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. (Closed on Legal Holidays).

*Changed from Monday nights to avoid conflict with "Family Night" in the Church.

Oakland-Berkeley Stake

"Colonial Ball" On Cultural Arts Sked

By Nina W. Palmer

Second event of the MIA Cultural Arts series, sponsored by the Oakland-Berkeley Stake MIA, is scheduled at the Interstake Center Cultural Hall at 7:30 p.m. "Friday, February 12. "The Colonial Ball," will be a dinner-dance. Those desiring to purchase tickets for this one event may do so at a suggested donation of $5.00 a couple before February 8.

It is still possible to purchase series tickets for the remainder of MIA Cultural Arts events. This includes the Colonial Ball on February 12; Fantasy of Sound, March 12; A Night at the Theater. April 9; and the Gold and Green Ball, (a dinner-dance) May 14. Suggested donation for the entire series is now $11.50 a couple. This continues to offer a saving from purchase of single-event tickets. Purchase of these tickets may be made from any ward or stake MIA officer.

Events are planned for couples of all ages, not just the young married age group.

New Bishopric For El Sobrante

Reorganization of El Sobrante Ward was announced to the Walnut Creek Stake quarterly conference January 24 by Stake President Kenneth D. Jensen. Bishop E. Dene Ogden, who has served since the ward was formed, becomes a member of the stake high council.

Don A. Martindale, member of the high council, succeeds him as bishop and will be assisted by Albert J. Perucca and Philip M. Eyring as counselors.

Also announced to the conference was the new stake mission presidency. Paul Corbridge, member of the presidency, succeeds Bevan Blake, whose business required his removal to New York, as mission president. Paul Brown continues in the presidency, Richard McManus becomes the other counselor, and N. Hurley Pratt, for five years Walnut Creek Ward clerk, succeeds Aljean Blake as secretary.

Pittsburg Ward

Welfare Dinner Is New Year's Feature

By Boots Barrus & Thora Astle

A successful New Year's Eve party and Welfare Dinner was held by Pittsburg Ward. The hall was decorated with balloons and confetti streamers and a buffet supper was served. The group played games and danced the old year out and the New Year in.

Returned to college after a visit at home for the holidays were Dianne Astle, Tony Buccellato and Marie Macfarlane. Also home for the holidays was Elder Bruce Bowen of the Navy who has returned to Chicago, Illinois, to continue basic training in nuclear physics.

A fund raising project of selling shelled walnuts was promoted to raise money for the MIA. The top seller, Tina Buccellato, 2 Year Beehive.

Brother Roger Person has been named superintendent of the Sunday School with Vernon Fisher as 1st assistant and George Dozier, 2d assistant. The bishopric and ward extend thanks to Brother George Dozier for his past work as superintendent.

Brother Rendell Johnson was ordained a Seventy in the Melchezidek Priesthood recently. He is currently serving as a stake missionary in the Pittsburg-Antioch area.

Norman Don Persons and Willie Eagle were advanced and ordained to the office of teacher in the Aaronic Priesthood; and Arthur Dave Persons was advanced and ordained to the office of priest.

Jimmy Dutton has been appointed president of the teachers quorum with D. Rees Magleby as 1st counselor and Bill Campbell as secretary.

The ward has been saddened by two deaths recently. Brother John Wesley Bray died December 21, 1964, while on the job at Columbia-Geneva Steel Co. He was the husband of our ward organist Miriam Bray and father of Keith Bray. He also leaves two sons, Keith and Stephen who lives in Utah, and four step-daughters, and one step-son. Harold Doedema died on the morning of January 1, 1965. He was the husband of Sarah Doedema and father of Marilee Doedema.

Brother and Sister Lester Ensminger have become the parents of their first child, a baby son, born January 15. The mother is the former Sherry Street of Pittsburg.

Word has also been received of the birth of a daughter to former Pittsburg Ward members Barry and Myrna Burnette who now live in Palo Alto, where Barry is attending Stanford University.

Oakland 3d Ward

Crowds Attend Temple Sessions

By Mary Westover

Ordinance work is under way in the Oakland Temple. Oakland-Berkeley Stake has been assigned the first and third Thursdays each month. Every session was well attended, but the evening session was packed. So many of our members are regular workers that there were few left to do the actual work,—but they were there in large numbers.

The athletic program, particularly basketball, is proving to be a real missionary tool in our ward. During the month two team members were baptised and confirmed. Our senior A team placed second and the senior B team placed third in the stake contests and the junior A team is undefeated and hopes to go all the way.

Ed Soliai was called to Samoa by the illness of his father, who at the last report was feeling better.

June Smith has been in Reno to welcome her grandson Scott Tracy Harris born January 4 to Martin and Carolyn Smith Harris.

News from our missionaries continues to be good. Ken Matheson is back from the Eastern States mission and gives his report January 24. Danny Parks says that the uplift which goes with the Christmas season wherever you are helped them to baptise ten members during the two weeks around Christmas. The Blisses had a Christmas dinner for 235 missionaries in Ayr, Scotland, which made their Christmas most enjoyable. Both Bill Wheeler and Carl Decker report slow but satisfying progress on the chapels they are building in Britain. Esther was temporarily grounded by a broken leg, but is getting around better now. The only complaints Joyce Swenson, Marvin Bennett or Jerry Hilton have is that they would like to be able to take our climate along with them—but that was before the rains. Fred Weindorf is now in the North Ireland Mission headquarters in Belfast, and will be home in April.

Visiting ni Idaho during the holidays was the Richard Hollingshead family. Visitors to Utah were Brother and Sister Clyde Harris.

Called to Monroe, Utah, by the critical illness of her mother, who is 101 years of age, was Sister Alta Magleby.

Basketball Team Goes Undefeated

Claremont Ward's basketball team won the Oakland-Berkeley Stake championship in a thrilling game against Oakland 3d Ward January 11. They are undefeated all year. The score stood at 71 to 66 at the game's end. It was a hard-fought contest—four men of our nine had fouled out by the last quarter, and toward the end of the game three of the remaining players had four fouls each against them.

Members of the team are John Anderson, Frank Williams, Dean Bacon, John Funes (who scored 37 points), Jim Thorne, Duane. Jackson, Stan Corbridge, Norris Finlayson, and Jeff Millward. The team will enter the regional playoffs February 4.

Robert Ahlborn, former member of the ward, is now serving a mission in Uruguay. Margaret reports that after only 10 months in the field, he has been called to be assistant to the mission president.

Deanna and Dwight Powell. former members of the ward, write from Ft. Lewis, Washington, where Dwight has entered the Army with a commission and is an artillery battery commander. They have two little boys.

San Leandro 2d Ward

Ray Stevens Home From 'Down Under'

Elder Raymond Sessions is home at San Leandro 2d Ward after 24 months labor in the Australian Mission. In his report given in Sacrament meeting he gave an interesting account of how he helped to convert a Methodist minister who had been preaching 20 years and who lost all his friends when he joined the Church. He was so grateful to Elder Sessions for bringing him the Gospel that he traveled 600 miles to bid him goodbye when he heard he was returning home.

Many ward members have been called to hel p in the Temple as ordinance workers and hostesses.

Five of our active members were released from positions in the ward in Sacrament meeting Sunday so they can return to BYU to further their education. Those leaving are: Harold Cameron, Margaret Evans, Jane and Tom Hansen and Rosemary Ostler.

FOLKMAN D. BROWN, director of LDS relationships with the Boy Scouts of America with headquarters in Salt Lake City; MURIEL COTTLE, president, Walnut Creek Stake Primary; JOAN SNOW, president, Concord Stake Primary; ROGER L. BALES, Scout executive, Mt. Diablo Council, Boy Scouts of America, at a meeting January 11 with stake and ward primary leaders connected with Cub Scouting and Guide Patrols.

Sunday afternoon Brother Brown met with the three (Oakland-Berkeley, Walnut Creek, Concord) stake presidencies, high council advisors to YMMIA and Primary and others interested in our Scouting program, to discuss the relationship between the Church and the program. Mr. Bales represented the local council at the meetings.

Thomas F. Rogers

Funeral Services were held Jan. 6 for Thomas F. Rogers, 81, who died in Hayward after a long illness. Services were conducted by Hayward Ward Bishop Bernard Stewart, with prayers offered by Alma Peterson and Ralph Sylvester. Music was sung by Sister Ruth Wilson. who sang "Love at Home", a favorite of Brother Rogers. Thomas Byrnes, patriarch of Santa Rosa Stake, eulogized his old friend as a man who taught by word to live in the manner of Jesus Christ and taught by example that it can be done.

As a teacher and administrator in Sunday School he tried to get the principles of the Gospel into his class members. As a branch president he was largely responsible for the warmth and friendliness of the branch. His ambition and goal in life was to have love at home and to make others happy.

In 1964 he and his wife Annie had been married for 60 years. They came from Arizona as a young couple and raised seven children in the Berkeley area, sending them by streetcar to the old Oakland chapel on MacArthur Boulevard. Later they moved to Sebastopol where Brother Rogers continued to work as a sheet-metal worker in the rolling mills. He was honored by his company after 50 years of loyal service with an engraved watch, and again at 55 years with a pin. Sister Rogers will continue to make her home in Hayward, where she is much loved by those who know her.

Hayward 2d Ward

Mutual Marrieds Group Organized

By Mel Venturi

We now have a Mutual Marrieds group in our Ward with Norm and Mel Venturi as co-ordinators. The first fireside was held recently with Bishop Quentin Hunter as speaker. Applesauce cake and hot chocolate were served. There were 35 people there. Our first social will be held Feb-5, with plans under chairmanship of LaVere Adams and his wife Carolyn. Plans are for an "airplane flight' to Mexico, Italy, China and the Bahamas. Decorations, costumes, entertainment and food from these countries will be served at different homes, with guests "flying" from one home to another. After completing the "flight" to the different countries, participants will meet at the amusement hall for games and entertainment.

Two babies have been born into our ward. Niel and Marta Pass have a new son, born December 22. The other five Pass children chose the name of the baby, Jacob Joseph. He weighed 9 pounds 12 ounces. The other baby was born to Anabelle and Lyle Burke who now have five boys and one girl.

Our Ward has changed meeting times with Hayward 3d Ward and is now meeting for Priesthood at 9:00. Sunday School at 11:30 and Sacrament meeting at 6:00.

The "Youth Spectacular" held recently at the Inter-Stake Center was a success, attended by 2,000 of the youth of the Church and their friends. This was the effort of the youth missionaries. One of our own boys Stan Morris did much work to make it a success, as master of ceremonies. It began with a testimony meeting, followed by a dinner and dancing. Entertainment was by the "Three D's", an instrumental trio.

On January 30 our Elders quorum presented "A Night to Remember". Dinner was served and the El-Do-Mar Trio presented instrumental and vocal selections for entertainment. Proceeds went to the ward building fund.

The "Gold and Green" ball will be sponsored by our ward and Hayward 3d ward. Theme of the dance will be "Night of Knights". It will be held Friday, February 12 . It will be "dressy dress", $3.00 a couple or $1.50 a person, ages 14 and up. There will be a live orchestra, and refreshments. It will be held from 9:00 to 12.

Linda Rowley has been in Oak Knoll Hospital but is now feeling better and will be home soon.

To Marry In Oakland Temple

JOCELYN KINGDON, daughter of Mrs. Earl G. Kingdon and the late Colonel Kingdon, and DONALD HUGH HOWARD, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Howard of Marshing, Idaho, plan to be married in the Oakland Temple in July, according to the mother of the bride-to-be of 322 Ramona Avenue, El Cerrito, member of Berkeley 1st Ward.

Jocelyn is a graduate of Berkeley High School, where she edited The Jacket, the school paper. She attends Brigham Young University. Her fiance is in the BYU circulation department after graduation from the University of Idaho and a master's degree in library science at the University of California, Berkeley.

The Kingdons moved to Berkeley from New York seven years ago.

New Bishopric Is Sustained

By Valiere May Brunner

Our new bishopric was sustained January 17. Verne Tueller is bishop. Lynn Blatter, 1st counselor and Billy Masek, 2d counselor. They and their wives gave inspiring talks along with former Bishop Paul Williams and his wife Marilyn. A goodbye social will be given the Williams family from their many friends and ward members before their departure to southern California.

Two proud fathers blessed their babies. James E. Olson by Fred and Joseph C. Jarman by Kent.

Baptisms were held for Vicki Wright. Julia, Pamela Burt, Rosalie Sherman, and the Jenkens family, Hugh E. Sharon, and Nancy K.; also the Farrell family, Charlotte, David, Yvonne, Lawrence and Theresa Ann.

During the holidays the "Y" students all gave wonderful talks about their experiences. Following their talks a student trio presented several lovely selections.

The families of the ward were shown a film on "How to conduct a Family Home Evening." After the film three members gave their experiences on how their own family members reacted to the new program with helpful suggestion for us to follow. We all went to our homes with prayer and inspirations to conduct our own meetings every Monday evening.

A farewell testimonial for Dennis Rhea was given February 7. He is going to serve in a Scottish mission. He is our eighth missionary in the field at this time. His proud family is Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rhea of San Jose and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John Erickson of Fresno.

Babies, Weddings Highlight News

By Gwyn A. Probst

Babies and weddings highlight the news at University Ward this month. In order of their appearance have come Diane Lewis, daughter of Ann and Val Lewis and sister of Craig; Lisa Heckmann, firstborn of Karen and Dick Heckmann; Suzanne Bailey, who initiated Ed and Judy Bailey into parenthood; and most recently Robert Bryan Wilson, whose birth occasioned the passing out of Tootsie Rolls for the second time by parents Robert and Jean Wilson. Word has also been received of the arrival of sons to former University Ward members Frank and Rosalie Brown, stationed with the Air Force in the east, and David and Judy Ream, putting their stint in with the Judge Advocate General's Dept. of the army, who have named their son Matthew David Ream.

Open House was held at Bishop Dilworth D. Jensen's home Jan. 1 in honor of Ward Clerk Larry Cannell and his bride the former Betty Jo Neilsen. The couple plan to make their home in Albany. Wedding bells are not far off for other couples in the ward. Maryana Hatch, a department store executive trainee from Provo, Utah, will be wed Feb. 5 to Thomas M. Dunning of Marysville, Calif. After the ceremony in the Salt Lake Temple the couple will make their home in San Mateo where he is employed by a life insurance company. One of Maryana's roommates Marcenne Sweigart, our Relief Society visiting teacher message leader and Robert Croft, a dental student in San Francisco, plan an early summer wedding in the Oakland Temple. (She's teaching in Hayward.) Sterl Miller, president of the Y.M.M.I.A. and Millie Schiess. work message teacher of the Relief Society, will exchange vows March 5. From Tremonton and Providence, Utah, respectively, they will remain in this area where Sterl is a personnel specialist for the U.S. Dept of Agriculture.

After a successful ward Christmas party (featuring a very special original melodrama, the M.I.A. is planning for the next big event, the Ward Quartet Festival, Feb. 16. Sports, too. are in the news since the ward girls' basketball team were the regional champions, and volleyball teams are in the process of being organized.

The Relief Society evening meetings have been followed with interest. December brought special entertainment; while some sisters "antiqued" statues for their homes, under direction of Jan Godfrey, others were informed on sewing gifts for Christmas by Rosalie Pinkney. All finished the evening by sampling favorite Christmas recipes prepared under supervision of Jean Hyde. Planning the gourmet meal with Steve Kovacich as chef and Madeleine Clay assisting with French desserts was another unusual treat. A musical evening under the baton of Sam Henrie will be featured in February.

Lambda Delta Sigma plans to start the new semester with a chapter meeting Feb. 10. Mrs. Muriel Thorne will present slides on little known countries of the Far East.

Fraternity Convenes On Berkeley Campus

By Glade Buryon

Members of Lambda Delta Sigma, national fraternity for LDS men and women, from northern California and Nevada will gather at the Berkeley L.D.S. Institute next month to investigate new ways of building their organizations for the coming year. The Reno, San Jose, and Berkeley Institutes will spearhead a day and a half of activities. Frank M. Bradshaw, coordinator of southern California Institutes, will be the featured guest. Students from Institutes classes throughout northern California and Nevada are invited to join the Lambda Delta Sigma groups in fun and activities Friday, Feb. 12, and again on Saturday, Feb. 13, for devotionals, brain-storming, workshops. and dinner.

Lambda Delta Sigma is one of the most unusually active and successful college organizations in America. It is composed predominently of Institute students attending college. The organization designs its activities around five ideals—fellowship, leadership, cultural, religious, and intellectual goals.

ROBERT E. DE CELLE II, 19, 27. Beach Road, Alameda, assigned to the Far East Mission (Japan) for the next 30 months, reported to the Mission Home at Salt Lake City January 18, for two weeks' concentrated study after a farewell testimonial at Alameda Ward. Robert was a San Francisco Examiner Junior Diplomat to Australia in 1958, one of 55 in the nation. He went to Japan with the Explorer Scouts in 1960, one of ten specially chosen. He was one of the Christian Athletes at Estes Park, Colorado, in 1961 and attended the Olympic Games at Tokyo last fall. A successful distance runner for Alameda High School and Merritt College, he broke the 20-year mile record in high school and was a member of winning cross-country teams for Oakland City College. He is an Eagle Scout, holds the Duty to God Award, and has been a member of the northern California cross country team for 1962 and 1963, placing 6th in the latter year.

To Al Scheuller, An "Old Pro," Our Thanks

This is AL SCHEULLER who has served for the last five years as Hayward Stake photographer. a job relatively unsung and unhonored until recently when a visitor from Salt Lake City commended President Winkel on having such an office in the stake and for the fine work that Brother Scheuller has done.

Although Brother Scheuller is the professional photographer for Alameda County Schools his real joy is in photographing people and events in the Church. Over the year he has been on hand to record special events of all kinds. He has made a fascinating history in pictures of the progression of the East Bay Interstake Center and the Oakland Temple from groundbreaking to completion. One of his biggest jobs was the photography for the history of Hayward Stake. This book, titled "Triumph" included pictures of the entire stake membership by wards, as well as the heads of all organizations. "It was a terrifically big job," he says, "But it got done, because Someone seemed to be helping."

Other phases of his activity include going to the homes to make missionary photos for newly-called missionaries who are usually extremely busy with the details of getting ready, making copies of precious old pictures for genealogists and recording the happy events at Mormon wedding receptions. This is a great joy to him because "You meet the choicest people there, and under the happiest of circumstances." He got started five or six years ago, he doesn't remember exactly, when he volunteered to drive out to Livermore to help a friend with some family pictures. He worked from this into a plan for similar service throughout the stake. coopearting w,th the Genelogy committee, and subsequently received an official call as stake photographer.

When he is not out taking pictures of a Church activity or in his darkroom printing them he works on his book, "It's Been My Privilege" in which he tells of the notable people he has photographed over the years. Although these include many renowned figures such as Eleanor Roosevelt and Harry Truman, his biggest thrill has been to photograph President David O. McKay.

Brother Scheuller has a strong testimony of the Church and it gives him greater joy than he can express to serve the Lord and the people of the Church with the talent and ability he has been given. He is also in the ward Sunday School superintendency. He and his wife, the former Lucille Peterson, live in Fremont with their two sons.

High Priests Hear Work Missionaries

By Lue Seavers & Violet Pinckney

High priests of Alameda Ward sponsored a party Janaury 23 for Thys and Reba Winkel and Ralph and Erma Lane who showed colored slides of their work mission in Holland, England, and Scotland and travel pictures from other parts of Europe.

Sister Beauton Lenfesty, Primary president, directed 168 boys and girls in the Christmas program. Old Santa presented a big stocking to each child.

Ken West and Betty Jones were married in the ward chapel by Bishop Samuel V. Gardner December 19. They were sealed in the Los Angeles Temple December 26, accompanied by Jerry and Marva Lou Eichelberger and Dan and Marina Harrison.

Funeral services were held December 19 for Adelaide Vicks with Robert Roth conducting and George H. Pinckney as speaker. Sister Vicks, grandmother of Lois Vicks, was one of the old timers in the ward.

Kitie Simpson's granddaughter came from Reno and took her to Long Beach for the holidays with other relatives.

Jack Powell spent the holidays at Riverside with his son, Gary and family, also spent a couple of days with the George H. Pinckney, Jr. family at Costa Mesa.

Sister Olive is recovering from a rectn operation. Sister Ona Patterson has been in Oak Knoll Hospital recovering from a heart attack after having been Japan visiting her son and daughter-in-law.

Blessed—Debra Lynn Bird by her father Alfred J. Bird; Tammy Lou Workman by Bishop Samuel V. Gardner.

Baptized—Nancy Lynn Nelson by her grandfather; Sharlene Janel McDonald by Daniel B. Harrison and confirmed by M. Lee Robison; Kevin Edward McBride by Daniel B. Harrison, Jr. and confirmed by Daniel B. Harrison, Sr. Elizabeth Rose Harrison was confirmed by her father Daniel B. Harrison.

Hayward Ward

New Bishopric Is Announced

By Marjorie Simard

Recent weeks have been unusually busy and exciting for the members of Hayward Ward. Probably the most people are affected by the choice of a new bishopric, presented to the ward by President Winkel January 3. The new bishop, Bernard O. Stewart, chose as his counselors Ronald Lewis and Vard Johnson. Bishop Murphy had requested his release after four years of service in the calling, to spend more time with his family. Bishop Stewart's father. Patriarch Owen L. Stewart was bishop of Hayward Ward in its early days.

For many the most important thing that happened was the return of Elder Michael Lyon from the mission field, after having labored in Uruguay for 2½ years.

Among the lessons Elder Lyon told of learning was the attitude of "I'll do," rather than "I'll try" and then "I'll do my very best." He learned the importance of making a decision. "The minute you begin to procrastinate you begin to make the wrong decision." He came to more of an understanding of the gifts of the spirit, and learned the importance of prayer by which the Lord can mold our spirits. Prayer, he feels, is the only means we have of being one with God.

Michael's moving report to the ward on his years as a missionary was concluded by hearing his testimony in impeccable Spanish. Also on the homecoming program were his father, Leonard J. Lyon, and Ariel Mazella, a student at BYU, who was converted to the Church in Uruguay and spoke of the debt his people owed to Elder Lyon and the love they bear for him.

Before his mission call Michael was an engineering student at San Jose State, and will resume his studies this spring semester at Brigham Young.

Other changes have been made in the organization in the ward. Sister Violet Hancock has been sustained as Primary president with Norma Pilling and Dorothy DeFranco as counselors. Joanne Lewis will continue in the Primary as a teacher and will devote more time to care of her young family. Nellie Gold continues to serve, this time as in-service teacher.

Cardon Crockett has been sustained as assistant ward clerk in charge of home teaching, to replace Mont Pettingill, whose family is sorely missed since they moved to Irvington.

A Christmas gift to the Relief Society was presented by Bishop Murphy and his family as a part of the program at the Christmas social. with Sister Murphy presenting poetry and scripture, the Bishop and Melissa singing, and Dennis playing a trumpet solo. Also on the spiritual program was Barbara Pimentell. An excellent lunch was served to 40 sisters. Gifts were exchanged.

The Primary gave a lovely gift to the ward for Christmas, too, in the form of an evening program, well attended in spite of a heavy rain storm. The evening was concluded with the giving of candy to the young people by the Three Kings in resplendent costume.

Hayward is becoming a ward of missionary and college age saints. Elder Roy Butch Dahle's family received a cablegram from President Nicolayson that Butch had had an emergency appendectomy in Lima, Peru, and was doing fine. Elder Kay Bryson was accompanied to a youth conference in Tahiti by a large number of young people from Tubua, many of whom had never been on the small island before. Larry LaPray and Jay Crockett are working as companions in French Quebec and Larry is learning his French from an expert. Richard Hemming has written home about the inspiring experience of converting and baptizing a fine young woman in Belfast. Ireland who had been planning to return to her home in East Africa to work as a missionary for the Church of England. A number of friends of Elder Darrell Gold met him at the San Francisco Airport on his way through enroute to his assignment in Southern Australia.

Five wonderful young Mormons celebrated Christmas with the spirit of love in their hearts. Early on Christmas morning two teenage sons and their father got up and dressed and drove from their home in Mineola, Texas, 45 miles to the site of the new Church house and worked on the building until 2 p.m. Then they drove home, cleaned up and had dinner, and only then did they open their gifts. The three younger sisters had waited, too, to have their Christmas with their brothers. These are the children of Reed and Ruby Lesser, and this is one of the choicest memories brought back by grandparents Clarence and Gertrude Lesser from their visit of several weeks.

Little Harley Richard Justus hade his initial appearance Jan. 15, welcomed by his parents. Harley and Collen, his three brothers and one sister.

February is "Getting to Know You" month in the ward, with many dinner parties planned to raise money for the welfare assessment. This has proved a favorite way to raise money.

To set the tone for the year the new bishopric spoke to the ward and charged the members with their responsibilities. Bishop Stewart said Hayward is a fine ward but must not rest on its laurels. While we are proud of our large group of fine missionaries we must continue to send new elders and sisters to replace those who are coming home. While we are fortunate to own our building, like all old buildings it needs maintainence, and he citied the demise of the p.a. system as an example. Attendance at Sacrament meetings is only average and who wants to be the worst of the best or even the best of the worst? Many members enjoy the blessing of paying tithing, but many have not yet tested the Lord's promise.

Brother Ron Lewis gave an interesting talk in which he charged his listeners to be aware of the vital need for genealogy work and the very clear commandments we are given to do it. Brother Vard Johnson, new in the bishopric, was ill in the hospital and distressed not to be able to fill his speaking assignment. He later had surgery to remove a kidney stone, and made a speedy recovery.

Save Your Pennies —For The Parade

Remember the Primary Children's Hospital Penny Parade!

Most of us have known the Penny Parade for years and need no urging to support it. For those who came in late—and to refresh the memories of us all—the hospital draws no lines of race, color, creed, or means—only need.

It is a fairly new, strictly modern, general hospital for short or long-term treatment of children. It is supported in large part by voluntary contributions of families on the basis of two pennies for each birthday the members have enjoyed. It is wholly supported by the Church. Of course, it is a non-profit institution.

The present modern plant, the outgrowth of an idea started in 1911, was dedicated by President David O. McKay 13 years ago. The bigger it grows. the bigger the need stems to become.

This is worthy of our wholehearted support—all of us who love children. And who doesn't? Ask someone who has been helped or had a loved one helped in such a place and don't expect a short answer.

Obituaries

Floyd Anderson

Floyd Anderson of Berkeley 2d Ward was born December 29, 1891 at Manti, Utah. His father was William Niels Anderson, who was a school teacher for thirty years; and his mother was Mary Luke. Both had pioneer parents from Sweden and England respectively. Floyd learned telegraphy early but wanted to advance. He went to Los Angeles shortely after he had married Maybelle Hormon and while working attended Southwestern Law School. At this time he was keeping books for the Bankers Club in Los Angeles.

Upon graduation he went to work for the law firm of Waldow, Root, and Dysert and was soon invited to become a junior partner. He was offered a position with the Fidelity and Casualty Company, a bonding concern. in the claims department and became manager of the southern California area. He remained with them working into the position of western division claims manager, which meant a move to the San Francisco office.

In 1940 he was advanced to the position of resident manager, in charge of underwriting and claims. This Company dealt in large bonding projects such as the original Walnut Creek Tunnel and has since expanded until it is now known as the Continental Insurance Company.

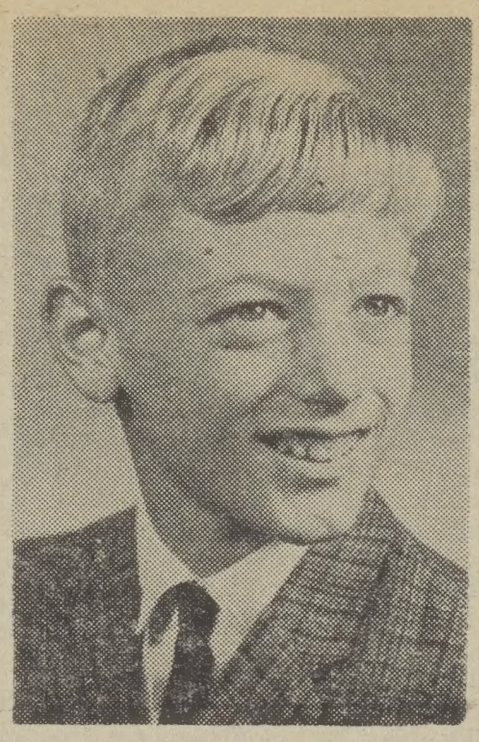
In 1949 when Floyd's health broke he had to retire. During the last 16 years he has been cared for by his wife, Maybelle. He leaves two children, five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He died November 20.

J. Edgar Tittensor

J. Edgar Tittensor died December 11 of cancer of the lymph glands. He was born in Cove, Cache County, Utah, February 3, 1901. His parents were Joseph B. Tittensor of Richmond, Utah, and Della Handy of Franklin, Idaho. He was raised in Ogden where he had moved when young. He became an apprentice to the Southern Pacific Railroad and remained with them 23 years. On October 14, 1922, he and Lorna Garner were married in Salt Lake City. They moved to California with their only daughter in 1940 when he was employed at the Mare Island Naval Shipyard.

Ed has always been busy in the Church. In Ogden he was secretary of the elders quorum and the Genealogical Committee; in Vallejo he was in the Sunday School superintendency, manual counselor in the YMMIA and served as ward clerk under three bishops: Jack Johnson, Vernon Newman, and Henry Neerings, becoming a High Priest; and he was almost finished with a two year Stake Mission when they moved to the Berkeley 2d Ward in 1956.

Beside his wife Lorna he has the one daughter and son-in-law, Doug and Lurae Storey of El Sobrante, and four grandchildren; Lynn, who is married to Linda Gilbert, David, Ann and Cydney; a brother, Thomas H. Tittensor and sister, Mildren Foley of Ogden and a brother, Emmett H. Tittensor of American Fork.



Wins Science Honors 2d Year

For the second time in two years, David Kuhre has won honors in the National Children's Science Recognition Program with his experiment on "Thermal Expansion."

Word has been received from New York that David has won first prize for his project. He will receive scientific materials for future experiments.

This program is sponsored by Science Materials Center, Inc., a subsidiary of Allis-Chalmers.

Last year he won a second prize. David was also a blue ribbon, first prize winner in the Contra Costa County Science Fair.

David, a deacon and Boy Scout in Berkeley 2d Ward, is the son of Calvin and Roma Kuhre.

Hayward Stake

Youth Honored At Banquet

By Marjorie Simard

Young men of the Aaronic Priesthood and young ladies of corresponding ages will be honored guests at the second annual Hayward Stake youth banquet

Feature of the evening will be Interstake Center dinner will be served to the young people by members of the stake presidency, the high council, counselors of ward bishops and general secretaries of the Aaronic priesthood. The food will be prepared by the Livermore Ward.

Feature of the vening will be a talk by Leland Anderson from Brigham Young University where he is in charge of the Institutes of Religion. Theme of the evening is Full Education with both Spiritual and Material Development that leads toward improving the mind and gaining intelligence. Bishops of each ward, who preside over the Aaronic Priesthood quorums, will be honored, and will sit among the young people.

Mission Ward

Year End Sees Moves, In and Out

The end of 1964 and the start of 1965 saw several members marry and move out of the ward, and a former member return to the ward with his bride.

In November, Cherie J. Mauradian. 17, married and moved out.

In December, Marva Beardall, 19, married Donald Busby, 21, of Los Angeles, and moved. Also during December, Mark I. Butcher, 17, who had recently enlisted in the Marine Corps, was married.

On January 3, Stephen K. Territo, 25, married Angelina Cattolico, 21, and moved. Also in January, 1965, Bonnie Jean Casperson, 31, married Donald Hamilton, 35, and moved out of the ward.

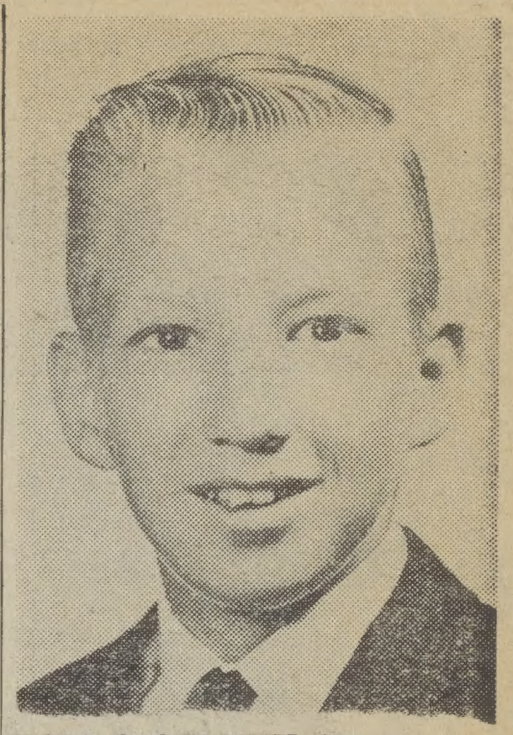
On December 27, the ward welcomed back Marcus B. Johnson, 20, a former member, who returned to the ward with his wife Sally Frances. Sally Frances Reza, 17, was baptized in February, 1964, in Santa Clara, California. Marcus and Sally were married in Santa Clara, November 27.

On January 3, Terri Lynn Robbins, 4 and Russell Keith Robbins, 1, were blessed. They are the children of Mrs. Susan Gladys Robbins, a recent convert to the Church.

During December, Mrs. Rose M. Lepping and son, Robert, and Mrs. Sophie E. Olsen and her six children, transferred from the Spanish-American Branch, to Mission Ward, as these two families prefer an English-speaking ward. Also in December, Elder Alan D. Rogers, and his family transferred to the Spanish-American Branch, where Alan is their YMMIA superintendent.

1964 was a busy year for the ward, with 123 families moving out and 129 families moving into the ward. Because more families with children moved out than families with children moved into the ward, the total individual count dropped by 50. Three young elders were called on full-time missions. Four young men enlisted in the armed services. Four men and six women were married in 1964. Total membership married to non-members as of December 31, was 122. Two Elders and their wives, previously civilly married, were sealed in the Temple. Total number of children blessed in 1964 was 17. Total number of children baptized in 1964 was 4. Total number of converts baptized in 1964 was 15. Total number of priesthood ordinations in the Melchizedek priesthood was 9 and in the Aaronic priesthood 20. Total number of deaths was 9, including non-member spouses of ward members.

Sunday School will have two new classes starting in January, 1965. One class will be the Teacher Training Course, with the instructor, Mrs. Ginny L. Beckes. The other class will be the Investigator's class, with Elder Gary Jones, as teacher. Mission Ward was without an Investigator's class for most of 1964, and welcomes it back. The text will be: A Marvelous Work and A Wonder, by LeGrand Richards." The Sunday School will use as its text in the Gospel Essesential's Class in 1965, "Prophets of the Old Testiment," by Bennion.



DALE E. NIELSEN, JR., was recently presented the "Duty to God" scouting award by Livermore Ward Bishop W. A. Sandholtz. This high award represents achievement in both Scouting and Priesthood attendance and assignments.

Dale is the son of Dale and Erma Nielsen of Livermore and a high scholastic achiever at Livermore High School, where he is a Junior.

True Thanksgiving

Ira J. Markham, faithful correspondent and Concord Stake high councilman, gave us a clipping from the Concord Daily Transcript of Nov. 26, part of which is quoted below. The family, like Brother Markham, are members of Concord 2d Ward.

FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES—The grief-stricken family of a Clayton Valley High School girl killed last week in an automobile accident, have appealed to the victim's classmates to "show compassion" for the youth believed to be responsible for her death.

The poignant message contained in a letter addressed to The Transcript is, we believe, a sermon befitting the day of Thanksgiving on which it was received.

The Karl Eriksson family writes:

A LETTER OF thank you and appreciation to our friends in time of sorrow.

The untimely death of our daughter Bonnie on the 12th of November has brought grief to many of us and, as her family, we are writing this letter to thank all those who have shown us kindness and love at this time. We especially wish to extend our appreciation for all the sympathetic letters and cards, the flowers and the visits to our home. Our thanks also to the faculty and student body of Clayton Valley High School. We appreciate the thoughts and prayers in our behalf. When someone her age is taken in such a tragic way, feelings of great sorrow and love are displayed.

But in our grief it has also been brought to our attention that feelings of ill have been displayed toward Roy Laccoarse, also involved in the same accident. Young people, let us remember, we profess to be a Christian nation and by Christian we mean Christ like. This does not mean only on Sundays but every day and every moment of our lives.

Compassion and showing love will form young people good characters into great characters and this is an attribute we should all seek for.

THIS YOUNG MAN, with a scarred face will have a constant reminder of this tragedy, and time will not be a healer in this case because each time he looks at himself in the mirror this will be brought vividly to his attention.

You are the only healers that this boy has left in life. And if you don't show compassion and love you will be the instruments that might scar his very soul. It is with your help that this youth can accept his place in society and use this tragedy as a stepping stone to become great and a useful member of society. We do appreciate the great love you have in your hearts for Bonnie and please use this love and the love Bonnie had for you to help this young man.

BONNIE LOVED LIFE and the wonderful Clayton Valley High School and if she were here I am sure that she would visit this young man and assure him that she was his friend. Do not carry any animosity in your hearts for this a tool for tearing down, where love is a tool for building good will among all men.

For Bonnie's sake be kind and love one another and I'm sure wherever she is she will smile. Again thank you to the student body and wonderful faculty of Cyauton Valley.

Sincerely,
The Eriksson family

BYU Announces Scripture Series

A Journey Through The Latter-Day Scriptures is the topic of a lecture series announced by the Brigham Young University California Center. Brother E. Cecil McGavin, well-known author of LDS Books, will conduct a four-week lecture tour throughout northern and southern California.

Brother McGavin is an authority on Church history and Latter-Day Saint scriptures. He has spent his adult life as an instructor in LDS Seminaries and Institutes.

He is now teaching classes in Church history and doctrine at the BYU Salt Lake Center for Continuing Education.

He has served two missions for the Church and still found time to publish 17 books on LDS scriptures and Church history. His publications include "The Family of Joseph Smith," "Nauvoo the Beautiful," and "How We Got the Book of Mormon."

Besides his lecture tours throughout the western United States, brother McGavin has given a series of lectures on KSL Radio concerning the Book of Mormon. He has served in all the auxiliary organizations and as a stake high councilman.

The program for the two evenings of lectures is: first night, "The Book of Mormon: The men who wrote it and their records" and "The Jaredites: The discovery of America 3700 years before Columbus. The Lehi stone from Central America." Second night, "The Doctrine and Covenants. Historical Background of Revelations" and "The Pearl of Great Price: How we got the Book of Moses and the Book of Abraham." The lectures will be held from 7:30 p.m. to 9:45 p.m. with short intermissions. Registration for the entire program is $2.50 a person.

Locations and dates for the lectures are: San Leandro Area: Monday and Tuesday, January 11 and 12, 1965; East Bay Interstake Center, 4780 Lincoln Avenue, Oakland, California; Palo Alto Area: Wednesday and Thursday, January 13 and 14, 1965; Palo Alto Stake Center, 1105 Valparaiso Avenue, Menlo Park, California.

Richmond Ward

Alma G. Mortensen

By Mima Williams

Funeral services were held recently for Alma C. Mortensen, 85, former bishop of the East Richmond Ward. who died at his home in Walnut Creek.

Bishop Mortensen was a native of Parawan, Utah, and lived in Richmond for 25 years before moving to the Walnut Creek area five years ago.

In 1944, the Richmond Ward chapel was located at 28th and Nevin Avenue. It was at this time that the ward was divided with Brother Mortensen sustained as bishop of the new East Richmond Ward.

Surviving are his widow, Grace; two sons, Earl of Porterville and Clair of Sacramento; a daughter, Mrs. Leola Stuart of Bell, Calif.. seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Bishop Dean Criddle of the Pleasant Hill Ward officiated at the services from the Oak Park Hills Chapell. Burial was in Memory Gardens.

For further information contact the BYU California Center 3141 West Century Blvd., #9, Inglewood, California 90305, telephone 678-3903 (213).

San Francisco Stake

Shifts In Presidency And High Council

By S. C. Chandler

San Francisco Stake conference Jan. 9 and 10 saw many changes. D. Forrest Greene of the high council was sustained as 2d counselor in the stake presidency, succeeding Vincent W. Jones, released on moving from the stake.

President Greene had been a member of the high council for two years; previously he served as bishop of Bay Ward. Also sustained were George Aaron, Floyd Emmett Beatie as councilman. Dr. Frank Bagley and Thomas O. Call were released as members of the high council.

Marion L. Allred was chosen superintendent of the stake Sunday School succeeding Floyd Emmett Beatie. Wilford Laeha was sustained as superintendent of the stake YMMIA board, succeeding Malin Jackson who is moving from the stake. Burness C. Salin, Robert Bain, and Al Harrington were sustained as high priests.

Visitors to the conference were Don Bagley of the General Priethood Welfare Committee and Edna Fox of the Primary General Board. They led the conference in an examination of the program of the Church for family development.

Speakers included Stake President Irven G. Derrick and his Counselor David W. Alger. Other speakers were Jonas Heaton of the high council; Pearl Terry of the stake Primary board, Frank Bagley, and Thmoas O. Call. Each of the new officers was asked to express himself. The youth of the stake were represented by winners of recent MIA speech contests.

Five Give Youth Concert

Five young musicians of potential professional caliber gave an MIA youth concert at the East Bay Interstake Center Dec. 29. All plan careers in music.

On the program were violin, harp, vocal and piano numbers before an appreciative audience.

Patrice Anderson and Carol Stevens played difficult numbers from Mendolssohn and Bach. Gail Evans played a harp solo by Renie. Kristine Comendant, soprano, showed promise in her numbers from Pergolesi, Ireland, Vivaldi, and Puccini. Kurt Ericksen at the piano showed skill and interpreted Chopin's Scherzo and the Taccata by Khachaturian. as well as two of his own compositions.

The concert was directed by Sam Henry of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake music committee.

Parties Are The Order Of The Day

By Mary D. Westover

Speaking of parties, Nancy Helton, Gerogiana Facer's mother, had one celebrating her 95th birthday on December 10. Sister Helton was baptized into the Church when she was 85 years old, and while unable to attend of late, she is still a devout member. The crowd was merry and she fairly sparkled at the gifts and cake.

We have had quite a bit of illness in the ward. In fact the bishop said he had someone in every hospital in town! Brother Clarence Goodsell and wife Jane have been ailing, he in the hospital for several weeks. George Day is back in Church from his illness as is Mary Westover. Larry MacDonald is up and around following his basketball accident and Scott Stevens has recovered and is all ready for Christmas again. We were glad to welcome the Blair Masons and the Richard Beckmans back into the ward again.

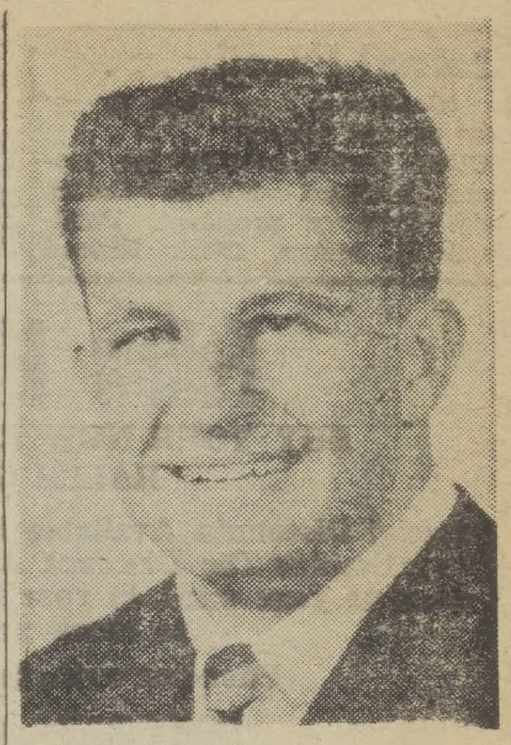
Diane and Deborah Johnson were baptized recently by their cousins, Aaron and Lester Johnson and confirmed by their Uncle Louis.

Four of the youngsters have graduated from Primary during the month; Jim Stoddard, John Call, Steve Call and Paul Johnson each graduated as Second Class Scouts, and we are proud of them!

Our Senior A and Senior B and Junior A teams all go into the upper division basketball play-offs.

Of course we, like everyone else in the area, are still on Cloud Nine because of that wondrous pageant. I was so proud of those youngsters that my chest grew three inches, and I'm supposed to be LOSING weight! There were probably some lowered school grades and a lessened attendance at Seminary—but you HAVE to pay for all that good-

Talking of being proud! 68 per cent of the girls of Mutual age in the ward received individual awards, 32 of them! Along with six leaders! There were seven awards for perfect attendance which helped us to achieve an average ward attendance at Sacrament for November of 35 per cent.



ELDER NICK M. PAPPAS was honored at a missionary farewell at Alameda Ward chapel January 10, on the eve of his departure for the Western States Mission. Participants in the service included his parents, sisters Bette and Gloria (Oyen).

MERRILL GRAY, son of Orville and Bernice M. Gray of Pleasant Hill Ward, a senior at Pleasant Hill High School, who recently received his Duty to God Award from Bishop Dean W. Criddle.

Recent visitors to New York from Pittsuburg Ward were Brother and Sister E. Scott and Brother and Sister Fred Goudge. They had much of interest to report on their trip, being particularly impressed by their trip across the Continental divide, which is above timberline, their travels along the Pennsylvania Turnpike, and t,heir visit to the largest cedar forest in the world. Of exceptional interest to them was their visit to the World's Fair, where they saw the Mormon pavilion with its towering statue of the Christ, and its theme which was Man's Search For Happiness.

Sister Lena Sloniker has been made the new Work Day Director for the Ward Relief Society.

Gone, but not forgotten is the once-in-a-lifetime Temple Pageant, given by the young people in thankfulness for the beautiful new Oakland Temple. Participants in this event from our Ward were Evelyn Dutton, Frances and Janice Lowry, Patricia Barrus, Linda Street, Joan Magleby, Brenda Hood, D. Rees Magleby, Bill Campbell, Tommy Krey, Steven Johnson, Nelson Astle, Boots Barrus, Thora Astle, LaFarr Astle, and Tom Neves.

Oakland 2d Ward

Elder James Lamph has returned recently to his home in Oakland 2d Ward after completing a two-year mission in the Hawaiian Islands.

He brought back glowing reports of the interest in the gospel. His description of the Islands, the hospitable people and his first baptism were impressive.

The 1st quorum of Elders, Oakland 2d Ward, gave a dinner in honor of those of San Leandro second ward, as they are now grouped together.

Released as Junior missionaries were Dan Harrison, Craig Roth, Le Ann Tolman, Leo Hallford, Becky Tolman, Corlee Zundel.

Sustained as junior missionaries were Clifford Baker, Barbara Fink, Joe Tolman, Jr. Karen Soots, Dan Harrison and Joyce Lane.

Married in the Arizona Temple were Marjorie Ann McCain and Dennis Bailey. Ken West and Betty Jones were married by Bishop Samuel Gardner in our chapel, with a reception following. They were sealed in the Los Angeles Temple. Joan Elizabeth Madden and Richard Berry Carlen were married.

A home-coming reception for Elder Thys and Reba Winkel. Their son Tom will be stationed at Alameda Naval Air Station with the American Red Cross after He has been at Anchorage, Alaska the last year.

Sandess fell over the ward as we learned of the death of Lt. Harold Messervy who was lost at sea with ten other members of the U.S. Navy Air Force while patroling the China Sea. Memorial Church and Navy Services were held for him.

RUTH LILLIAN MARQUARDT, daughter of Mrs. Etta Marguardt and the late Gideon Marquardt of Balboa 1st Ward, became the bride of DENNIS STANLEY BROWN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown of Provo, Utah, at the Los Angeles Temple September 17, 1964, with President Benjamin Bowring officiating. They were honored at a reception in the Sunset Balboa Ward cultural hall September 18, 1964. They now' live inProvo, Utah, where Dennis plans to graduate from Brigham Young University.

CONTEST FINAL

SATURDAY FEBRUARY 20, 1965

GRAND PRIZE: A Simmons Beautyrest Mattress or Beautyrest Box Spring, or 10 sq. yds. of Lees famous "Lasting Star Carpet," in the color of your selection.

A choice of the above grand prizes will be awarded to the person submitting a list with the greatest number of words using only the letters contained in the word LAUPER'S by 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 20, 1965.

Everyone is eligible to compete in this contest who complies with the rules of the contest. (It is not necessary to be a customer of LAUPER'S FURNITURE STORE to compete.)

CONTEST RULES

1. Use the letters in the word LAUPER'S only once for each word submitted in this contest.
2. Foreign words are not allowed.
3. No abbreviations will be permitted.
4. Proper nouns are not acceptable.
5. Written entries must be submitted to LAUPER'S FURNITURE STORE.
6. Contestants, or their representative must be present at the store when the contest closes at 2:00 p.m. on February 20, 1965.
7. Word selection will be based on Webster's Unabridged Dictionary—1964 edition.
8. In case of a tie, the Sweepstakes Winner will be selected from the eligible contestants in a public drawing at LAUPER'S FURNITURE STORE at 1031 MacArthur Blvd., San Leandro, Calif. on Saturday, 2:00 p.m. February 20, 1965.
9. Employees of the store, contest judges, editors, and printers of the Messenger, or relatives of any of the above are not eligible to compete in this contest.
10. No entry will be returned.

The judges for this contest will be: Bishop Leland H. Wright, Bishop Curtis R. Bybee, Bishop Dale E. Roe.

THE DECISION OF THE JUDGES WILL BE FINAL.

(In answer to many enquiries, the possessive and plural forms of eligible words will be acceptable.)

JOHNNIE WHITE with full curl trophy Dahl Ram

A talking moving picture for the entire family to be seen and enjoyed at the Oakland Fourth Ward Chapel, 4705 Virginia Street, Oakland on Friday February 19, 1965 at 7:30 p.m.

This unusual and gripping adventure film in full color was produced in Alaska by Brother Johnnie White of San Leandro Stake at a cost in excess of $100,000.00. It is being shown at present entirely as a Church Benefit for your enjoyment. Refreshments will be served during intermission.

Suggested donations: Child—75c, Adult—$1.50, Sponsor—$5.00.
For reservations or information—Call this store, or "Allied Tile Supply"—Phone 632-4910, or a member of the Oakland Fourth Ward Bishopric.
